BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Forwards for sanction a draft notice calling for applications for the Govt Printing class to be opened in the Govt Press.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

In his notice the Supdt proposes to take 20 pupils for the present. But the Govt. of 7th February limits the number to 30. The class is called day class. It is for orders if that qualification is necessary

SIR,

With reference to your letter No.G.2464/G.P.26-152 of the 26th instant calling for the submission of my opinion on the subject of opening the Printing Classes in the Government Central Press and on the notice proposed to be published in the Mysore Gazette, I have the honour to state that I think the notice may be published in the Gazette. It is necessary, however, to say that the applicants should have read up to the Lower Secondary standard at least in English. It may not be possible to attract sufficient number of applicants who have passed the Lower Secondary Examination. The notice sent in original together with a copy of the printed form of application is returned herewith.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
M. Shama Rao,
Inspector General.

TO

D. M. Narasimha Rao, Esq; B.A., B.L.,
Secretary to Government,
General Department.

SIR,

With reference to Government Order
No. G 5023 dated 15th October
G.O. 26-15-6
1915, directing the opening of a printing school in the Government Press, I have the honor to inform you that the School was opened on 5th November 1915, and that nineteen young men are attending daily. Some of them have not passed the English Lower Secondary as required, but I have allowed them to join the Class.

Owing to the non-arrival of a motor on order, we are at present unable to use the machinery erected, but the men are being kept busy with learning type-setting.

The instruction, in both theory and practice is being conducted by myself and Mr: R. Puttanja and Mr: B. Sreenivasa Iyengar between 12 noon and 3. P. M.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

M. Yates.

Superintendent,

Government Press.
